

Daily Racing Form

VOL. II. NO. 154.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1896.

PRICE, 5 CTS

MERRY MONARCH IS BEATEN.

It was a perfect day for racing yesterday and with a good card and fast track the sport at Ideal Park was far above that of last week. Yet the life of it was marred by an accident in the last race, Inverlike, with Jockey Newcom up, getting an ugly fall. The boy luckily escaped and will be able to ride in a few days.

Inverlike was backed off the boards by her owner, S. C. Wagner, and considering the way she was running when the accident occurred, she would have been a sharp contender.

The afternoon's racing piece came out of the fifth event which was a five furlong selling affair for all ages. Nine started and it took Mr. Dwyer forty-two minutes to get them away. When they were finally dispatched the field was badly strung out. Roy Lochiel and Omaha Wood had the speed of the lot and running head and head at a killing clip led Alvarado by ten lengths on the far turn. In the stretch both tired badly and in a staggering finish Roy Lochiel won by a short head, Omaha Wood being a neck in front of Alvarado who would have won in another jump.

Pinkey Potter took the nine furlong selling race in a gallop. He is a real good selling plater right now.

Merry Monarch's defeat by Umbrella was a surprise, but no great one. This aged son of Hindoo—Brambleta has been performing very consistently here and has been given a lot of it. Naturally he is stale.

The Foster colt, Abuse, was in a soft spot, and with 8 to 5 against him won the initial event in a common gallop.

Jockey Sullivan, who was set down Friday, has been reinstated.

Clem Creveling has gone to Oakley in search of good horses to race at Ideal Park.

Starter Dwyer set Jockey Weber down and the track has refused further entries from Fire-dance.

FORM VERSUS "TIPS."

The form ideas of Thursday's DAILY RACING FORM were marvellous as a display of how racing results should be and the general honesty of the turf exemplified by the mere mechanics of class and past doings. Twenty-eight races on five tracks were covered by charts and estimated overnight. Here is the summary of result:

Tracks.	Races.	Wins.	in three.	Failed
Ideal Park.....	6	3	4	2
Windsor.....	5	2	4	1
Oakley.....	5	2	3	2
St. Louis.....	6	2	4	2
Brooklyn.....	6	4	6	0

Total..... 28 13 21 7
The summary, however, does not tell the story of prices. At Ideal Park two of the three winners were not favorites. Merry Monarch at 18 to 5 and Pinkey Potter at 3½ to 1. The favorites in each race were not named and did not finish in the first three. Eighteen horses were named as form; eleven were placed.

At Windsor all the horses named to win by DAILY RACING FORM were favorites. Two won and two were second. Of fifteen horses named thirteen horses started and eleven were placed. At St. Louis six races were reported and eighteen horses named by FORM. Two won as named and four were in the first three. Of the eighteen nominations thirteen started and nine were placed.

At Oakley five races were covered and fourteen of the fifteen named horses started. Two nominations won, one, Harry McCouch, being 4 to 1 at the post. His race was called one-two-three. Of the fourteen horses named as form probabilities nine finished within the money.

At Brooklyn—where class is best and form most distinct—six races were covered and eighteen horses named. Four first named horses won and of the seventeen nominated twelve were placed. Miss Prim was 3 to 1 and Cassette 5 to 1.

This array should put the tout and the commissioner out of the business. DAILY RACING FORM has no inside information and does not want any. Its nominations are only mirrored by public form.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Outside of stake races, the Oakley fields are, by rule, limited to twelve starters.

The starting device used by Mr. Pettingill at Oakley is that used at Ideal Park—the Creveling-Dwyer rubber band.

The annual inspection at Woodlands, Barney Schreiber's noble farm at Bridgeton, Mo., was held Sunday. A party of 300 was taken to the farm on a Wabash special, entertained in princely style and showed the s res, dams, race horses and youngsters owned by the Master of Woodlands. The Morello—Pennyroyal filly, who will race next reason as First Born, was the star of the parade.

The powerful Burns & Waterhouse stable is to go to California from Oakley Saturday. Jim McCormick and Eddie Jones go with the horses.

Track Superintendent Frank Clark, of the Coney Island Club, is to go to England this fall especially to build a dirt training track at Newmarket for Pierre Lorillard.

The stewards of the National Steeplechase Association have suspended the California jumper Red Cloud and his owner, G. Webb, for the balance of the Brooklyn meeting.

The 1898 Kentucky Derby conditions are announced. The guaranteed value is $6,000 and the race at 1¼ miles, with 3 pounds allowance for geldings and 5 pounds for fillies. Non-winners of a 3-year-old race of $1,500 are allowed 5 pounds and maidens 10 pounds. The Clark Stakes of 1897 is to be worth $4,000 and the Oaks $3,000.

There are flashy rumors of Eastern yearlings. The Morris Brothers have a yearling brother to The Friar which greatly resembles the big chestnut colt. He is larger than The Friar was at the same age, and is said to be more promising. J. A. Bennett has a full brother to Huron and G. W. Johnson that can run fast, and there are several in the Keene division that are credited with being very fast. They are an extremely well-bred lot and have size and substance to commend them.

The modern racing joke is New York Mercury's "stud horse" type claim of being the "recognized sporting authority of America." No map of recognition is published with Mercury's bad and skeletonized charts of Oakley and Brooklyn. A third chart is not published because the guerilla tracks around Baltimore are not in touch with its newspaperic life nowadays. Perhaps St. Louis, Windsor and Ideal Park are not within "the American sporting authority's" range. Notion's nothing, payoffism a personal matter, and news everything with a hungry public, which decides—on a basis of service—what is its authority.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving hard. King Henry was bumped into and knocked off his stride. Plutus ran a good race. Tamerlane had lots of speed but could not carry it. Abuse was by far the best and showed it. He can beat better ones. Hands Off is of no present account.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second and third doing their best. Achieve had bad racing luck. He could not get through until too late. Rosny is a speedy youngster. Jersey Lad's race would hardly do. He seemed to have a winning chance on stretch turn though. Watch him.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Uncas—Parasol.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a big gallop; second with something left; third all out. Merry Monarch has had a lot of it lately and showed it in the race. His speed seems to be dulled. He was ridden hard all the way. May Galop did not have her usual flash, but came fast on the end. Umbrella was at his best and simply galloped all the way. The going suited him.
